

SESSION FOUR . . . of Exploring the Power of Support Circles Series

Keeping a Support Circle Alive Over Time

“Building a learning community together with people, families & allies from Windsor-Essex!”

Wednesday April 6, 2022

6:30 – 8:30 pm

Why form a Support Circle? What are the benefits?
What are the challenges? So much to discover!

Presenter Judith McGill, LifePath Training and Facilitation

Judith is a sibling, independent facilitator, adult educator and author with more than two decades of experience assisting people and families with the development of Support Circles.

Join us for Session Four with Judith to explore:

- Intentional planning for sustainability
- Role of the independent facilitator/supporter
- Rhythm of a Support Circle
- Supporting planning and decision-making
- Potential challenges and safeguards

Register by noon on Tuesday, April 5, 2022

On-line at: <https://windsorsexfamnet.ca/upcoming-events/>

Or by email: info@windsorsexfamnet.ca

A link to the virtual event will be provided the day of the event

To people and families who are interested: there is no requirement to attend all of the events in the series. You are welcome to participate in Session Four, even if it is your first time! Feel free to invite others to join you, those who are important in your lives. This could be a friend, extended family, independent facilitator, family coordinator, or other supportive professionals.

Windsor-Essex Family Network would like to thank our partners with the Windsor-Essex Relationships/Circles Group and our funders for making this series possible!
