

Believing in infinite possibilities!

A Home of My Own in Kingsville Reaching my Goals, the Journey Continues in 2021

Believing in infinite possibilities

As a new HOMEOWNER I enjoyed setting up the rooms inside my home

*As a PLANNER I have a Living Room VISION FILE
from before I moved, still holding the vision of changes I plan to make this spring*

Believing in infinite possibilities

*As a COOK
. . . I love
preparing food in the kitchen we created from my vision.*

Believing in infinite possibilities

Holding a Vision

*As a PLANNER
at heart, I still have my Kitchen
VISION FILE with a few more ideas
I plan to incorporate in my kitchen.*

YOGA & WELLNESS ENTHUSIAST

I planned this to be my exercise room but as a yoga & wellness enthusiast I have transformed it into my beautiful yoga room

Believing in infinite possibilities

*As an ARTIST
one of my goals
was having a room to be more creative in . . .*

*My vision file had shelves like these for all my art supplies. I finally was able to add

DESIGNER, DECORATOR

I will continue to use my creativity to dress up the inside of my home with my art and the outside with plants!

PET OWNER

I still have my cat Tabitha and she loves to come in and snuggle with me now!
